

Reto Ringger

Reto Ringger is a pioneer and entrepreneur at the interface of financial markets and sustainability. He founded Globalance Bank in 2011 and is its CEO. Globalance Bank is an award-winning private bank with a future-oriented business model in private banking. The bank is the first in the world to use the Globalance Footprint to measure the impact of investments on the economy, society and the environment. Before Globalance, Reto Ringger founded the SAM Group in 1995, which he successfully sold to the Robeco Group in 2008. Under his leadership, SAM launched the world's leading Dow Jones Sustainability Index together with Dow Jones, making SAM one of the leading providers of sustainable investments. For this he received, among others, the Global Green Award from Green Cross International. He is a member of the Club of Rome and holds an honorary doctorate from the University of Geneva. In his speeches he inspires the audience with investment themes and surprising future perspectives. He encourages them to invest in a positive future.

„Moving more than money: The world is not only a marketplace, but also a living space.“

Participants of the event „Luxury Business Day“ in Munich:

„I thank you with all my heart and thank you for the brilliant and convincing input presentation. Marked by high quality, from the first minute to the end. A brilliant performance from my point of view and unfortunately to be found less and less often.“

Architect

„Reto Ringger succeeds in creating a momentum of awareness with his presentation and the forward-looking topics, which is unparalleled.“ Lawyer

„I would like to thank you once again for enriching our congress with your presentation. I have received very good feedback, especially - and perhaps not so surprisingly - from the younger participants. One participant told me that she had never heard such an impressive and touching presentation at a conference before, she was almost in tears.“ Congress organizer
